

DEDICATION

"To know her is to love her."

To Mrs. Dixon, a native of Erwin, North Carolina and an A. B. graduate of Atlantic Christain College, we dedicate this annual, Memories of 1950, for her helpfulness and patience throughout the years she has been with us. She has helped the students and has enriched our extra-curricula program. Two years ago, she organized our Glee Club, which has been very successful. Youth to her is not a barrier, but a challenge.

"FAREWELL"

Our school days now are past,
But we will remember well;
The Days we have spent here,
How we will miss them no one can tell.
We'll miss you all, classmates dear,
But please remember this:
The days we leave behind us
Have been perfect bliss.
Here our memory will always dwell
To all of you, we say "Farewell."

CLASS HISTORY

We began our high school career, at Leggett, in the fall of 1946. At that time eight boys and twelve girls were enrolled. We were instructed this year by a faculty of nine.

FACULTY

Mr. P. S. White, Principal	Mr. David Pittman, English
Reverend L. W. Kessler, History	Miss Betty Atkins, English
Miss Kate Stanfield, Math-Latin	Mr. Mance Bogey, English
Miss Virginia Carraway, Home Economics-Biology	Mr. H. N. Cherry, Agriculture

In September, 1947 we enrolled at a loss of four of our freshmen members. During this year typing was introduced as a regular subject. Various clubs were also organized in the high school department. A few of our members participated in physical activities.

FACULTY

Mr. P. S. White, Principal	Miss Kate Stanfield, Math-Latin
Colonel Worth Wicker, History	Mr. H. N. Cherry, Agriculture
Miss Virginia Carraway, Home Economics-Biology	Miss Oliver Sollee, English-Typing

We were a class of twelve in our Junior year. This year we lost the splendid instruction of Miss Kate Stanfield, due to ill health. We were happy to have Mrs. Warren our former "Miss Jean Cherry" to work with us during the remainder of the year. Also two young teachers, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dixon, were added to our faculty this year. Under their leadership we accompanied the seniors to Williamsburg, Virginia. Early this year Mrs. Dixon organized and ably directed our high school glee club in which we had a large number. The high light of this year was the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held in our gymnasium.

FACULTY

Mr. P. S. White, Principal	Mr. G. C. Dixon, History-Science
Miss Virginia Carraway, Home Economics-Biology	Mrs. G. C. Dixon, English-Typing
Mrs. Paul Warren, Math	Mr. H. N. Cherry, Agriculture

The fall of 1949 we found that we had lost one member from our class. With a class of eleven we had a full year. At Halloween we gave a Carnival which was well supported by the Community. Our senior play, presented under the direction of Mr. Dixon, was well received by the audience. Our advisor, Mrs. Dixon, aided us in the publication of the third edition of, "Memories of 1950". Our social activities this year were climaxed by the Junior-Senior Banquet.

FACULTY

Mr. P. S. White, Principal	H. N. Cherry, Agriculture
Mr. Guy Dixon, History-Science	Miss Virginia Carraway, Home Economics-Biology
Mrs. Guy Dixon, English-Typing

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1950, of Leggett High School, leave to the Juniors all our worldly possessions hoping that they will be better used in the following year.

Pat White leaves her way with boys to Irene Norris and Janice Pollard.
Ann Draughon leaves her dignity and quietness to Joan Everette.
Frankie Kirkland leaves to William Briley, and Victor Edwards his talking ability.
Myrtle Lucas leaves her long curls to Lorraine Coker.
Georgianna Armstrong leaves to Martha Jones her talking of dates.
Virgil Kirkland leaves to David Wadsworth, E. C. Pollard, and Preston Harrell his ambition to succeed in LOVE.
Doris Denton leaves her silly remarks to Myrlean Manning.
Alma Jones leaves her stoutness to Dorothy Barnes.
Joseph Dupree leaves to Roy Riddick, Franklin Hardy, and Bill Rogister, his way of making girls swoon.
Grace Vick leaves her loving to dance to Lois Anderson.
G. B. Causway leaves to Tom Moore and Charles Dupree his MOTTO, "ALWAYS AT THE RIGHT PLACE."
Charles Corbett leaves to J. C. Vick and Vernon Joyner his ability to speak French.
G. B. Corbett leaves to Richard Riddick, his cute remarks.

Signed: Alma Jones, Testator

PROPHECY

My husband and I were taking the kids out for a ride one day in our lincoln and I met one of my old school chums and she gave the following news of my classmates.

Grace Vick is now a dance teacher of small children in Tarboro, and she has quite a large number of children, including hers.

Georgianna Armstrong who married a week after graduation is living in Lawrence and she sends her kids to Tarboro to her Sister-in-law for dancing lessons.

Frankie Kirkland is playing baseball with the New York Yankees and he's another Babe Ruth.

Pat White is living on a farm out from Leggett with her husband and raising Dears.

G. B. Corbett is now teaching agriculture at Leggett, because Mr. Cherry has retired.

Ann Draughon is going to college at W.C. U. N. C., but coming home soon to marry her Leggett Dream Boy.

Virgil Kirkland owns his own farm over in Lawrence and is waiting for the wedding bells.

Myrtle Lucas is working at the Telephone office in Tarboro and calls out in the country from Tarboro every day. I guess you know why?

Charles Corbett attended Carolina College for four years, then returned to Leggett to teach French.

Doris Denton opened her own Beauty Parlor in Leggett and is turning out hairdos like Mrs. Dixon wears.

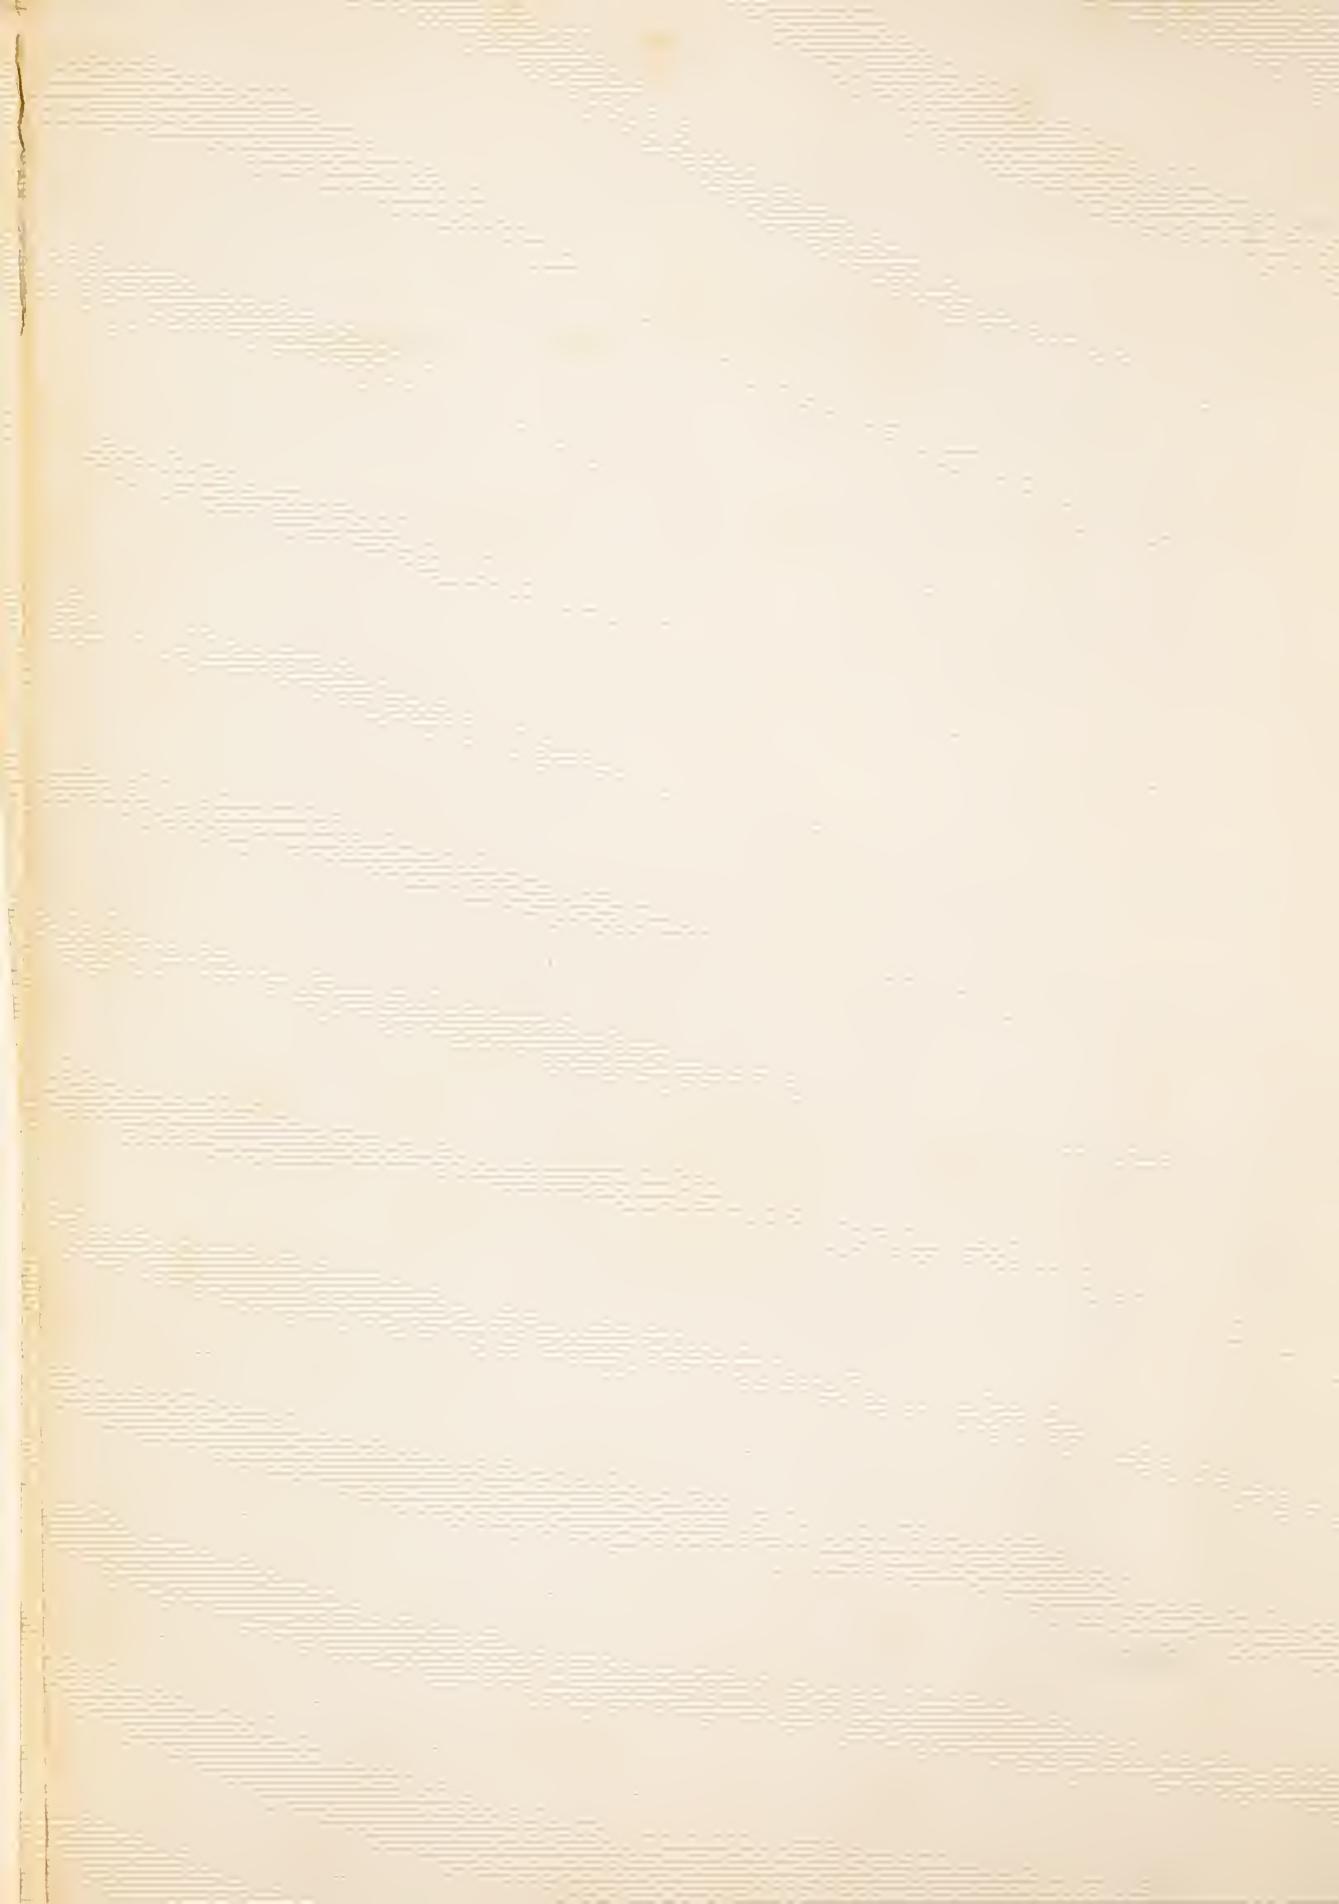

G. B. Causway has made the army his career, while his wife waits for him at home.

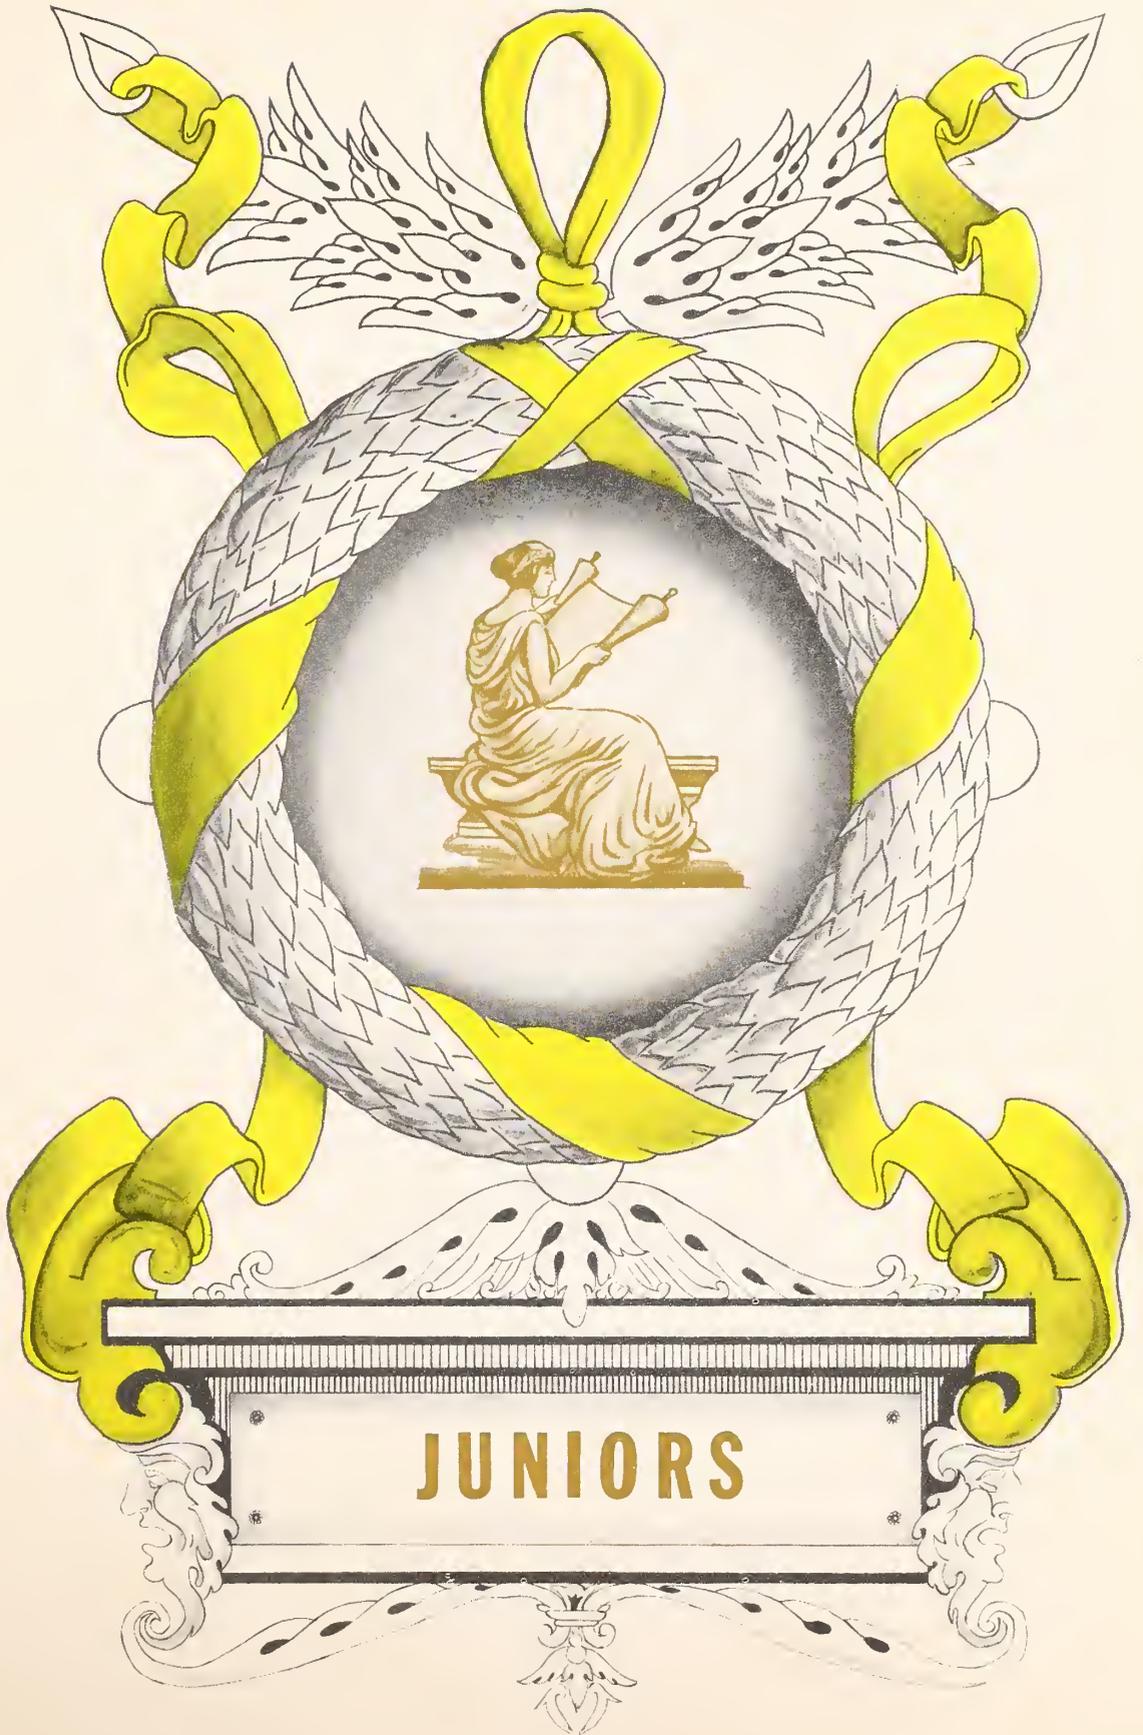

Joseph Dupree has his own program, "YOU CAN SUCCEED BY MAKING SILLY REMARKS." and is broadcasting from PSWC Leggett.

I hope that in the next ten years my classmates will make as much progress as they have in the last.

As I look back and think of the old gang at school and how silly we all were, I can hardly believe that they have achieved as much as they have in the past, and I'm hoping more success will come their way in the Future, so they can all SUCCEED.

Alma Jones, Prophetess

The Junior Class of 1950 is proud to have presented the first Junior Play ever presented at Leggett High School. We hope every one enjoyed it.

Joan Everette, Charles Dupree, Franklin Hardy, David Wadsworth and J. C. Vick well represented us in sports.

We took in Junior Red Cross work by making tray favors for the veterans on Thanksgiving.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was a great success for the Seniors, and a lot of work for the Juniors, but we all enjoyed it.

On October 24, 1949 we received our class rings, which we looked forward to for a long time.

We feel honored to be in the first Spanish class at Leggett High School. We have organized this class into a club. Franklin Hardy was elected president.

"The Junior Class is a friend to all."

There are 23 of us in our class and we are represented in athletics and all the clubs in school. The boys in class playing basketball are Donald Patterson, Graham Coker, and Lewis Spenser. We are also represented in girls basketball with Evelyn Everrette, Nannie Lou Lewis, Mary Anderson, and Bobbie Jean O'Neal on the team. We are well represented in the Home Economics Club.

As most of you know, a sophomore is nothing but a freshman grown a year more green. It takes rough treatment from the Seniors to show us what they mean, but "while we're green we grow" so we will start turning brown next year when we become Juniors.

We freshmen hope that someday
We will be seniors, too,
Though it may look doubtful
To the teachers and to you.
We have now as our leader J. W. Cooke
He holds the meetings and Ann keeps his book,
And so through the years
With your help and cheers;
We will do our best,
And like all the rest,
"Be Dignified Seniors."
